

Figure S1. Sample picture with the total amount of protein on the membrane.

Changes in protein levels were assessed by densitometry of the immunoreactive bands and normalized to the total amount of protein in the samples transferred onto the membrane.