Urban trees and human health: A scoping review

Authors: Kathleen L. Wolf (corresponding author – kwolf@uw.edu), Sharon T. Lam, Jennifer K. McKeen, Gregory R.A. Richardson, Matilda van den Bosch, Adriana C. Bardekjian

Table S1: Citations and References for Table 2

All studies included in scoping review are listed by the domains and subdomains of the health outcomes conceptual framework, then sorted by study design. This table corresponds to Table 2 in the manuscript. All 201 studies (in 199 articles) are cited in table, and references follow.
