

Supplementary Table S3

Description of Venue Types

	VENUE TYPE	Typically included:
1	Arts or Culture Centre/House	Community arts or culture centre; museum
2	Body-Mind Fitness Studio	Fitness studios that predominantly offer body-mind or mind-body practices (often Yoga/Pilates) but also include some other fitness activities, e.g. functional fitness
3	Bush Camp	Organised bush camps for families or groups
4	Church Hall	Halls or rooms in or associated with churches
5	Club/Society	Venues belonging to clubs or societies, e.g. youth clubs, scouts, angling club, sailing club, life saving club
6	Community Hall	Freestanding Halls or Pavilions available for community hire
7	Dance-Movement Studio	Dance-orientated studios or centres
8	Education	Non-primary/secondary school-education orientated institutions, e.g. Adult Education, Rudolf Steiner Training Centre, Environmental Education; Shiatsu College
9	Fitness/Health Centre	Fitness and Health-related centres or clubs, such as fitness centres, gyms, fitness studios, health clubs, city baths
10	Holistic Health Clinic/Centre	Clinics, Centres, or businesses focused on holistic health (e.g., acupuncture clinic; naturopathy; floors above holistic shops)
11	Leisure/Recreation/Sports Centre	Leisure, Recreation, or Sports centres
12	Library	Room or space in a library
13	Martial Arts School	School or Academy providing training in one or more of the martial arts
14	Mental/Psychological Services Centre	Centres focused on providing mental health or psychological treatment and/or services
15	Miscellaneous	A variety of venues difficult to classify, e.g. conference centre, medical clinic, Feldenkrais studio, Rehabilitation centre, Retreat House, Clothing store, Workshop & practitioner space

16	Musculoskeletal Health	Clinics or centres focused on treatment of musculoskeletal problems, e.g., sports medicine, physiotherapy, osteopathy, massage, myotherapy
17	Neighbourhood House	Community centres, Community Houses, Neighbourhood Houses, or Neighbourhood centres; multicultural HUB,
18	Outdoors/Public Space	Outdoor spaces such as parks, gardens, or squares, or public indoor spaces such as Atrium
19	Pilates Studio	Studio spaces specifically designated as Pilates studios
20	Primary/Secondary School	Classrooms, gyms, or other spaces in either primary (most) or secondary (one) schools
21	Residential Home	Space used is at a residential address (e.g., home studio in garage)
22	Senior Citizens Centre	Senior citizens clubs, retirement villages, or veterans centres
23	Yoga Studio/Centre	Studios or Centres specifically designated for Yoga training
