

Table 3: Doctors' reports (N=7)

Questionnaire statements	Strongly disagree	Disagree	Neutral	Agree	Strongly agree
Knows what an antibiotic is used for	0	0	1	3	3
Knows what "antibiotic resistance" refers to	0	1	3	1	2
Nurses are sources of information for antibiotics	0	1	1	2	3
The Internet is not their main source of information for antibiotics	0	0	1	2	4
Residents demand antibiotics from the health professional	0	2	1	3	1
Residents discuss with the nurse and doctors when antibiotic therapy is considered or not necessary	0	2	0	3	2
Considers that antibiotics are useful for all smelly urine	1	3	0	1	2
Considers that the prompt administration of antibiotics is necessary to avoid complications regardless of the infection	3	2	1	1	0
The resident considers that antibiotics are necessary whatever the cough	2	3	0	2	0
The resident considers that, without antibiotics, the treatment of an infection will not be effective	2	2	1	1	1
The resident knows that antibiotics are not used to fight viral infections	1	2	1	1	2
The resident considers that not all infections necessarily require antibiotics	1	0	4	2	0
The resident considers that antibiotics avoid all complications when administered	1	3	2	1	0
The resident consider that antibiotics are very effective, even on viral infections	2	3	2	0	0
An awareness campaign toward residents is needed about antibiotics	0	0	1	3	3