

Figure S1. Acetic acid (a), butyric acid (b) and lactic acid (c) concentrations in conditions A and B. The four samples used for microbial community characterization in conditions A and B are represented in black circle filled in grey to indicate their time of collection.