Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Editorial Board of Bioengineering, the many reviewers, contributing authors, and support staff, I am pleased to announce that the 2020 Bioengineering Travel Award is given to Mr. Punn Augsornworawat, a doctoral student in the laboratory of Prof. Jeffrey R. Millman at Washington University in St. Louis, MI, USA.

BIOENGINEERING 2020 TRAVEL AWARD

WINNER

Mr. Augsornworawat will present his paper entitled “Single-Cell Transcriptome Profiling Reveals β Cell Maturation in Stem-Cell-Derived Islets after Transplantation” at the 2020 Biomedical Engineering Society (BMES) Annual Meeting (<https://www.bmes.org/annualmeeting>) in San Diego, California, USA.

My sincere thanks and deep felt appreciation to all the travel award applicants.

Honorable mention goes to our other travel award finalists:

Dr. Flávia Raquel Teixeira de Castro of the i3S - Instituto de Investigação e Inovação em Saúde, University of Porto, Portugal.

Mr. Nicholas Fischer of the Minnesota Dental Research Center for Biomaterials and Biomechanics at the University of Minnesota.
