Dear Colleagues,

As Editor-in-Chief of Cells, I am pleased to announce that the winner of the 2016 Cells Travel Award is:

2016 TRAVEL AWARD WINNER

Miquéias Lopes-Pacheco, a Postdoc fellow at University Federal do Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, whose research focuses on cystic fibrosis transmembrane conductance regulator (CFTR) protein. Particularly, he is interested in investigating the mechanisms underlying the rescue of CFTR mutants implicated in cystic fibrosis. Miquéias completed his PhD research with 14 publications, being a key author in six of them, as well as presenting his work at many conferences as oral presentations and posters. He is planning to attend the “14th ECFS Basic Science Conference” at the end of March 2017 in Portugal. The award consists of 800 Swiss Francs towards attending this conference.
