

geosciences

The “Geosciences 10th Anniversary Best Paper Award” was established to mark the 10th anniversary of Geosciences in 2020. Nominations were made by the Evaluation Committee from all the papers published from 2011 to 2020 and approved by the Editor-in-Chief, Prof. Dr. Jesus Martinez-Frias. We are now proud to announce that the two final winners have been selected, and they are as follows:

10TH ANNIVERSARY BEST PAPER AWARD

WINNERS

Article (500 CHF):

The Nippon Foundation—GEBCO Seabed 2030 Project: The Quest to See the World’s Oceans Completely Mapped by 2030

Authors: Larry Mayer *, Martin Jakobsson, Graham Allen, Boris Dorschel, Robin Falconer, Vicki Ferrini, Geoffroy Lamarche, Helen Snaith and Pauline Weatherall

doi: 10.3390/geosciences8020063

Review (500 CHF):

The Carbon-Isotope Record of the Sub-Sea-floor Biosphere

Authors: Patrick Meister * and Carolina Reyes

doi: 10.3390/geosciences9120507

These papers perfectly represent the broad array of excellent-quality research published in Geosciences and are well-deserving of this award. We warmly congratulate Larry Mayer, Patrick Meister, and their respective colleagues.

Academic Open Access Publishing
since 1996

Geosciences Editorial Office
St. Alban-Anlage 66
CH-4052, Basel, Switzerland

geosciences@mdpi.com
www.mdpi.com/journal/geosciences