

International Journal of Molecular Sciences

Dear colleagues,

We are very pleased to announce the winners of the IJMS 2021 Best Paper Awards.

The awards have been granted to:

Three Reviews:

“Aging, Melatonin, and the Pro- and Anti-Inflammatory Networks” (doi.org/10.3390/ijms20051223)

“Causative Links between Protein Aggregation and Oxidative Stress: A Review” (doi.org/10.3390/ijms20163896)

“Immunobiology of Atherosclerosis: A Complex Net of Interactions” (doi.org/10.3390/ijms20215293)

2021 BEST PAPER AWARD WINNERS

Three Research Articles:

“Development of a Gut-on-a-Chip Model for High Throughput Disease Modeling and Drug Discovery” (doi.org/10.3390/ijms20225661)

“Triple-Negative Breast Cancer with High Levels of Annexin A1 Expression Is Associated with Mast Cell Infiltration, Inflammation, and Angiogenesis” (doi.org/10.3390/ijms20174197)

“CGRP Induces Differential Regulation of Cytokines from Satellite Glial Cells in Trigeminal Ganglia and Orofacial Nociception” (doi.org/10.3390/ijms20030711)

In recognition of their accomplishments, each winner (corresponding author) will receive the privilege of publishing a free paper after the usual peer-review procedure in IJMS in 2021. On behalf of the assessment committee, we congratulate the winners on their accomplishments. We would like to take this opportunity to thank all the nominated research groups of the above exceptional papers for their contributions to IJMS, and thank the Award Committee for voting and contributing to the success of these awards.
