Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

In our changing world, we think that it is necessary to integrate spatial planning, multiple stakeholders' interests and the conservation of ecosystems processes for human well-being through a multidisciplinary approach. In this framework, we invite you to submit to the Special Issue on "Protection, Management, and Restoration of Coastal Ecosystems" a wide range of contributions, case studies, and methodological and applied research related to the following topics:

- Restoration of coastal habitats;
- Long-term rehabilitation studies;
- Spatial planning, environmental modelling;
- Landscape analysis, connectivity analysis;
- Integrated management between nature conservation and economic interests;
- Sustainable management of coastal and transitional habitats;
- Coastal protected areas;
- Ecosystem services;
- Soil–sediment–water systems;
- Handling of coastal erosion.
