Dear Colleagues, Dear Researchers,

For the Medicines Travel Award 2019, we received a total of 38 applications from all over the world, of a very high quality. Together with a scientific evaluation committee of experts from Asia, Australia, and America, we selected the following exceptional applicant as the winner of the Medicines Travel Award 2019:

Dr. François Chassagne, PharmD, a postdoctoral research fellow at the Center for the Study of Human Health, Emory University, Atlanta, GA, USA.

2019 MEDICINES TRAVEL AWARD WINNER

The award consists of 800 Swiss Francs toward Dr. Chassagne attending an academic conference of his choice in 2019.

I would like to congratulate Dr. Chassagne on behalf of the evaluation committee and the Medicines editorial team and thank all candidates for their most interesting applications!
