Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

In this Special Issue, we would like to invite investigators to submit preclinical or clinical studies focusing on the pharmacological advances for the treatment of hypertension

We will consider both original research and review articles. Potential topics include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Animal models of cardiovascular disease associated with hypertension;
- Isolation and characterization of natural products with antihypertensive effects;
- News synthetic drugs useful in the treatment of hypertension;
- Preclinical and clinical trials of synthetic drugs and plant-derived medicines such as antihypertensive agents;
- Systematic or narrative reviews of synthetic drugs and natural products with antihypertensive properties;
- Synergistic effects of synthetic drugs and natural products on hypertension treatment.
