Message from the Guest Editor

Rural access is key to the realization of a number of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development Goals. In this regard, we are inviting empirical research papers for a Special Issue in our Journal from countries around the globe that address one or more of the issues below:

Deadline for manuscript
submissions:

closed (25 January 2023)

- Addressing how rural transport access contributes to rural poverty alleviation, economic freedom, healthy families, education and effective participation in community and national development.
- Discussing sustainable rural access designs using local knowledge and resources.
- Cost-benefits accruing from improved all-season road access.
- Gender mainstreaming and equity in rural transport.
- Rural transport planning and inclusiveness for the marginalized populations.
- Improving rural access roads safety and eradication of accidents.
- Innovations in the delivery of transportation services through safe use of motorcycle taxis and three-wheelers.
- Rural transport planning challenges.
- Empowering women through improved rural transport access.
