Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

As Editor-in-Chief of Tomography, I am pleased to announce a new Special Issue, entitled "Tomography in 2023", which aims to comprise a collection of high-quality reviews and original papers from Editorial Board Members or outside leading authors, discussing new knowledge or new cutting-edge developments and the state-of-the-art in imaging science research. Artificial intelligence, patient and professional dose exposure, COVID-19 imaging research, and interventional radiology are welcome topics.
